

Military Appreciation Day

Saturday, February 4, 2012

The Summit at Snoqualmie will be hosting a Military Appreciation Day on Saturday, February 4th in admiration of our courageous men and women in service. Military personnel and their families will benefit from savings on tickets, rentals, lessons, tubing and more. Attendees should proceed directly to any Summit ticket booth or rental location with a valid Military Identification to receive the discounts.

Military Appreciation Day is the perfect occasion to enjoy a fun filled day on the slopes at terrific savings. First timers can take advantage of our lesson package. The Summit Learning Center is full of dedicated instructors whose first priority is to make sure you are having fun while learning. Our staff will give you the tools and skills to conquer the varied terrain and snow conditions of the Pacific Northwest. Our First Turns Package includes an hour and forty five minute lesson, a ski or board rental, and a beginner lift ticket for ONLY $45!

*We recommend reservations for Kids Group Lessons. Busy weekends book early, so reserve now. Reservations must be placed by end of day, Thursday Feb 2, 2012. Military ID required at check-in. Place your reservation online at https://secure.summitatsnoqualmie.com/slc_res/itemlist.aspx or call our Learning Center team at 425.434.6700. To receive your military kid's group lesson discount, use COUPON CODE: MILITARYLOVE at checkout.
